

About JDRF

JDRF is the leading global organization focused on type 1 diabetes (T1D) research. Driven by passionate, grassroots volunteers connected to children, adolescents, and adults with this disease, JDRF is now the largest charitable supporter of T1D research. The goal of JDRF research is to improve the lives of all people affected by T1D by accelerating progress on the most promising opportunities for curing, better treating, and preventing T1D.

The Local JDRF Presence

The Greater Chesapeake and Potomac Chapter represents Maryland, Washington, DC, Northern Virginia and Jefferson and Berkeley Counties of West Virginia. In this region, we reach over 75,000 active JDRF supporters and people in the T1D community through our fundraising events, outreach program, and chapter communications such as our monthly e-newsletter and bi-annual print newsletter.

JDRF has a tremendous economic impact on our local region. Over the past 10 years, JDRF has invested approximately $40 million in research grants to local institutions including Georgetown University, Johns Hopkins University, the University of Maryland, the National Institutes of Health, and the University of Virginia.

2016 JDRF GOLF CLASSIC

Monday, June 20, 2016

TPC Potomac at Avenel Farm

10000 Oaklyn Drive
Potomac, MD 20854

Tournament Information

Our annual golf outing brings together local business leaders and philanthropists to tee up for a cure. This year's tournament will be hosted at TPC Potomac at Avenel Farm. This championship par 70 PGA golf course features natural rolling terrain, bentgrass tees, fairways and greens, fescue grasses, and Scottish-style bunkering. The tournament is structured to promote maximum networking opportunities for our participants, and features lunch, a raffle and auction, cocktail reception, and awards and prizes in support of JDRF.
