Event Descriptions

D.C. Hope Gala – November 4th, 2017

Each year, the Hope Gala raises millions that fund research to cure, treat, and prevent T1D. The JDRF DC Hope Gala is an extraordinary event, each year bringing together more than 700 prominent community members representing some of our region's leading business, civic and cultural leaders for a sparkling evening of fine dining, stellar entertainment, and an exciting auction.

Day-of Volunteer Opportunities (9am-3:30pm): Various setup tasks such as program book organization and setting, bid card organization, area setup, etc.

Night-of Volunteer Opportunities (3:30pm-midnight): Registration, line-flow/area flow assistance, silent auction volunteers, assistance with seating guests (finding their tables), live auction spotting, live auction recording, live auction runners, silent auction check-out, and breakdown of all areas.

MD Gala – November 18th, 2017

Bringing together hundreds of prominent community members and leaders, the JDRF annual MD Hope Gala aims to raise awareness and fund research aimed at treating, and eventually curing, T1D. A black-tie optional event, the MD Hope Gala offers guests an extravagant night of fine dining, entertainment, as well as silent and live auctions.

Day-of Volunteer Opportunities (9am-3:30pm): Various setup tasks such as program book organization and setting, bid card organization, area setup, etc.

Night-of Volunteer Opportunities (3:30pm-midnight): Registration, line-flow/area flow assistance, silent auction volunteers, assistance with seating guests (finding their tables), live auction spotting, live auction recording, live auction runners, silent auction check-out, and breakdown of all areas.

TypeOneNation Summit – March 3rd, 2018

TypeOneNation is a free, all-day educational and networking opportunity for the type 1 diabetes (T1D) community. The only event of its kind in the MD/DC/Northern VA area, TypeOneNation brings together T1D experts, physicians, and researchers to share their expertise on the latest treatments, breakthroughs in research, and the psychosocial aspects of living (and thriving) with T1D. After each presentation, audience members have the opportunity to ask questions and there is also a panel discussion at the conclusion of the program. Additionally, the event features a robust exhibit hall of vendors representing the latest in diabetes management technology, resources, products, and research, as well as a Youth Program for ages 5+ and a Teen Track for ages 13+.

Day-of Volunteer Opportunities (7:30am-3:00pm, shifts available): Main registration, breakout session setup & time keepers, Youth Program registration, teen room time keepers and courage participation in the various activities, youth room time keepers and courage participation in the various activities, arts & craft room monitors.
