Progressive Dinner

You and seven guests will enjoy a one-of-a-kind progressive dinner experience from start to finish, beginning with a private limo pickup from The Ritz that sets the tone for a relaxed and indulgent evening. You'll be whisked away for an exclusive dining experience curated by Chef Max Kenison, who also lives with type 1 diabetes, starting with handcrafted cocktails and chef-selected appetizers designed for savoring and connection. The night continues with a fresh seasonal salad course and a signature steakhouse-style dinner, featuring expertly prepared entrées and warm, attentive hospitality. To close out the evening, simply sit back and enjoy the ride as your limo returns you to The Ritz, where dessert, drinks, and live music in the lobby await, creating the perfect Saturday-night finale.
