

Tampa Community Summit Agenda

Sunday, January 18 – Hillsborough Community College, Brandon Campus

9:00–10:00am	Check-in & Vendor Exhibition Visit the vendor booths and mingle with others in our T1D Community!
10:15–11:00am	Welcome Message & Keynote: Breakthroughs in Early Detection of T1D Anastasia Albanese-O'Neill, Ph.D., APRN, CDCES VP, Medical Affairs, Breakthrough T1D & Mom of T1D
11:00-11:15am	Drop Children (K-7th grade) at Kids Zone Full Kids Zone time 11:15am-1:00pm Kids Zone Activities Include: 11:15am-noon: Touched by Type 1 Dance Activity 12:15-1:00pm: Giving Tree Drum Circle
11:15am-12:00pm	Breakout Session 1 – Choose your Session: (A) Clinical Trials: Their Importance, Latest Updates, and Research from USF Craig Bobik, Clinical Trials Education Volunteer, Breakthrough T1D & Dr. Henry Rodriguez, Clinical Director of USF Diabetes & Endocrinology Center (B) Diabetes Technology: What's the Latest and How Do I Decide What's Best? Janet Rodriguez, Diabetes Educator with USF Diabetes & Endocrinology Center (C) Diabetes is a Team Sport: Communication, Collaboration, & Connection Dr. Marissa Feldman
12:15-1:00pm	Breakout Session 2 – Choose your Session (same options as Session 1): (A) Clinical Trials: Their Importance, Latest Updates, and Research from USF Craig Bobik, Clinical Trials Education Volunteer, Breakthrough T1D & Dr. Henry Rodriguez, Clinical Director of USF Diabetes & Endocrinology Center (B) Diabetes Technology: What's the Latest and How Do I Decide What's Best? Janet Rodriguez, Diabetes Educator with USF Diabetes & Endocrinology Center (C) Diabetes is a Team Sport: Communication, Collaboration, & Connection Dr. Marissa Feldman
1:00pm	Pick up Children from Kids Zone & Event Concludes