About Breakthrough T1D

We are Breakthrough T1D

Founded in 1970 by families determined to drive cures for their loved ones living with type 1 diabetes (T1D), we are the leading global T1D research and advocacy organization.

About T1D

T1D is an autoimmune disease in which the body attacks the insulin-producing cells in the pancreas. It is diagnosed in people of all ages around the world. People with T1D depend on insulin therapy to survive. There is no way to prevent it, and there are no cures. Breakthrough T1D is working to change that.

9+ million people around the world live with T1D making it one of the fastest growing, noncommunicable, chronic health conditions.

~85%

of diagnoses are in people without a known family history and over half of new T1D diagnoses are in people ages 20 and older.

24/7

management required and demands relentless vigilance, with the constant threat of serious complications.

Our work

No organization does more to improve everyday life with T1D. Today, we are leading the way to more effective solutions. Tomorrow, we will make T1D a thing of the past.

We advance breakthroughs

We drive global investment in the most promising research to turn ideas into life-changing therapies and lead the way to cures.

We advocate for progress & unlock access

We work with government to address issues that impact the T1D community—securing research funding and breaking barriers that limit access to care.

We connect & power the T1D community

We provide resources and guidance that make it easier to live and thrive with T1D. We bring people together to forge strong connections, ensure that no one faces T1D alone, and advance our mission to cure T1D and improve lives along the way. This is more than a moment—we're powering a movement for the entire T1D community.

With your support, we are creating a movement to improve and change life with T1D, advancing breakthroughs on the way to cures. To find out more, visit BreakthroughT1D.org.
